The State Athletic Commission made a ruling to the effect that rolling and flying falls should count. This edict nearly broke up the match in disorder after Zbyszko had won his first fall. However, after persuasion by the Boxing commission, the Strangler was induced to enter the ring and resume the match. The flying fall rule did not meet with approval of the spectators, who have been accustomed to pin falls, and for a time there was considerable confusion. ## GREEN CO DLANDS HEAVY WAGERS

With Garner Up Florisant Entry Wins All the Way at New Orleans.

Special Despatch to THE New York HERALD. NEW ORLEANS, Lo., Nov. 28.—Green Gold, ridden by Garner and carrying 105 pounds, was one of the five well backed winners the Kentucky delegation supplied in to-day's spirited racing at Jefferson Park. Green Gold was one of the three successful favorites, and his vic tory was loudly acclaimed, for he was backed to the virtual exclusion of all others by the Florisant stable and their large following.

Garner had him away on his toes and dominated the running throughout thanks to the belated getaway and early roughing that Tableau D'Honneur was compelled to contend with. At the end HUGGINS IS BACK;

Green Gold was well in hand to take the verdict by a length and a half from Bakgraper, a 15 to 1 shot, while Tableau D'Honneur saved third. The time, 1:14, was the best record throughout the day. The track was at its best, and the weather proved a delight to the large delegation of horsemen who arrived from Bowle during the morning.

Garner rode both good things of the day, his first being the filly May Bodine, which popped to the lead at the start and led throughout after she had been backed from 5 to 1, 7 to 2 before the running of the six furlongs claiming race.

McDermott also rode two winners, and so shared the jockey honors.
